The Pennsylvania Towing Association (PTA) did not write this article. The PTA is not responsible for the accuracy or references made in the article. They are basic guidelines to follow when operating a towing business. The information in this article was obtained from various sources not associated with the PTA. While we believe it to be reliable and accurate, we do not warrant the accuracy or reliability of the information. These suggestions are not a complete and accurate description of the licensing requirements in Pennsylvania. The information is not intended to replace the laws in Pennsylvania for towing. The insurance cost varies according the policy requirements. The policy cost will be based on the client's past history and staff covered under the policy. The various endorsements written into the policy will affect the final cost.

The PTA strongly recommends that you contact the local authorities for a clear and definitive answer to any questions you may have. This includes any and all charges associated with towing and storage.
